Lindbergh Case Again

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 1.—Governor Moore Monday announced New Jersey would probably move for the extradition of Bruno Hauptmann before the German carpenter goes on trial in New York on an extortion indictment.

The governor said New Jersey would prefer to bring Hauptmann here before he goes to trial in New York because of possible difficulties involved in extraditing if he is convicted for extortion.

Assistant Attorney General Joseph Lannigan denied he had given out a statement that New Jersey had "definite and irrefutable" proof Hauptmann was in the vicinity of the Lindbergh home on the day of the kidnapping, and that the state's murder case against the former German machine-gunner was "air tight."

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Clean-up week in the Lindbergh ransom extortion case began Monday.

Bronx county officials obtained dismissal of an affidavit charging Bruno Richard Hauptmann with the extortion. An indictment has superseded it. They also pushed their housewrecking search of Hauptmann's home and arranged with defense counsel for a mental examination of the prisoner.

District Attorney Foley said he would ask for a special jury panel of 200.

Foley said the mental examination of Hauptmann probably will take place Wednesday. New Jersey has indicated it wants three psychiatrists, Foley said. "I want several myself, one of whom will be Dr. S. Phillip Goodhart, who has helped me in other cases. The defense has indicated an intention to have one present."

The Bronx prosecutor said the indictment reached by the Bronx county grand jury last week, charging Hauptmann with extortion, will be the indictment on which the prisoner will be tried here, "unless new evidence is brought forward a new indictment."

New "Mystery" Man
The Bronx prosecutor said last Monday the deposit some time ago of currency later found to be part of the Lindbergh ransom money by a mysterious "J. J. Faulker" was still the subject of investigation. He also confirmed that fact that one of the ransom bills had turned up a day after the ransom money was paid, April 2, 1932.

The handwriting on the "deposit slip in the name of 'Faulker' had not been proven to be Hauptmann's. Foley said so far as he knew Hauptmann made all his deposits in person.

New Jersey, hoping to convict Hauptmann of the kidnapping and murder of Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr. moved more slowly, but with the distinct possibility of a sudden spurt in its extradition plans.

One high official stated no proceedings would be started this week. Another pointed out that acquittal on the extortion count in New York might weaken prosecution on the more serious charges, making it advisable for New Jersey to try Hauptmann first.

Six note books in which Hauptmann methodically listed his expenses are being given detailed study by the investigators. As for the entries, "That is a matter of evidence and I don't like to discuss it," Foley said.

The records, however, are understood to indicate that the wartime German machine-gunner was absent from his home for a few weeks at the time of the kidnapping 2½ years ago. They also name stores the ransom money might have come from when investigators believe some of spent.

Department of justice agents and police said Sunday night five more Lindbergh ransom bills had appeared, but Foley denied knowing anything about it. The bills were reported to have been turned into the Federal Reserve Bank by a New York bank with 73 branches, making it difficult to trace them.

The notebooks also were said to name the mysterious woman who, Foley has stated, greatly strengthens his case against the alien. Not even his assistants know her name, the prosecutor declared.

Ye editor called into the Flour Mill last week and had seemed angry. He said Cecil took a sack of flour on top of such a high pile he had to get a ladder to pitch it down.

NEW GOLD RUSH STARTS

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., Oct. 1.—Spectacular ore samples brought here by Paul Mitchell, an Indian, were credited Monday with starting a new northland gold rush to the western side of Lake Nipigon, about opposite the new Sturgeon river field.

The Canadian Bank of Commerce at Hairy Hill is just $8,500 short in cash as the result of the armed robbery by three unknown bandits Friday. Police of the R. C. M. P. force are working diligently on the case and a man-hunt of the magnitude is taking place in the district.

It is thought the robbers were experienced cracksmen and much interest is taken by the public in their identity. It is said the men left no trace of their identity and police are puzzled by their disappearance so completely.

To convey to our readers some idea of conditions in Southern Saskatchewan where drought and grasshoppers have seriously affected the people, the following is reprinted from the "The A. C. Star." Our readers will readily understand that these items pertain to railway cars. While the majority of those who moved usually used a Bennett Buggy or horseback for transportation of their families and drove cattle and horses ahead of them. Of the "old" covered wagons was seen in operation in modern times.

MANY FAMILIES MOVE NORTH

Government assistance to drought stricken residents has been extended for the shipment of 1,305 cars of effects, food and fodder and saving equipment during the past four months, according to figures released by officials of the Department of Agriculture.

Families moved from southern areas to farms in the north total 109.

Total number of cars of livestock and hay and out to authorized from May 26, to September 18, 1934—655 cars.

Total number of cars of fodder authorized from August 21, to September 18, 1934—365 cars.

Total number of cars of cattle affected authorized from August 1, to September 18, 1934—285 cars.

PURCHASE FEED FOR SOUTH

Thousands of tons of northern Saskatchewan's fodder law and frozen crop will be rotting in the drought areas in the south within a few weeks with a view to equal distribution of purchases over the frozen crop areas. Mr. Laarmouth, of the Department of Agriculture, Live Stock branch, is in the north laying the foundation for the heaviest movement of feed in the history of Saskatchewan.

Providing a free freight service so far as the farmer in the route is concerned, considering assisting the northern municipalities in having baling done at minimum cost, and arranging prompt payment of purchase price to northern farmers, are among the steps the department is taking in alleviating the feed situation in the south and at the same time aiding the north in disposing of crops hit by frosts in August.

Purchase price of oat feed will be based from $8.00 a ton downward. Wheat, and probably barley, will bring $7.00 a ton downward. Midland hay is to bring $6.50 and downward, according to grade, and clover hay $5.00 under a similar plan. All prices quoted are for baled feed, f.o.b. from the north.

$250,000,000 REFUNDING ISSUE TO MEET MATURING VICTORY BONDS

On the inside page of this current issue is an announcement of the refund loan.

Formal announcement was made Thursday by Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Minister of Finance, that this forth coming dominion refunding loan would be offered for public subscription on Monday next at a rate that would be strictly limited to $50,000,000 of which $22,000,000 would be required to meet the Victory loan 5% percent bonds due Nov. 1.

Terms and series will not be made public until the week end and prospectuses will be laid before the public Monday.

Because of loans floated in London and New York within the past year, at very low interest rates, the main issue is much smaller than originally anticipated, only a small amount of new money being asked for.

It has been reported unofficially that the issue will be in four maturities, two, five, eight and 15 years, bearing interest respectively at two, 2½, three and 3½ percent, but official announcement of these details will not be made public until later.

Rapidly increasing revenues give every indication of a substantial surplus on ordinary account at the end of the current fiscal year, undoubtedly had a bearing on the decision to keep the loan within such small proportions.

The Wainwright Record;

The Editor:
Your correspondent "J. D. W." is very wide of the mark in his criticism of the Bennett Government on the question of relief. He must know that relief measures within the jurisdiction of the provincial governments and the municipalities have been directed at those authorities. The federal government however, came to the assistance of the bodies to the extent of many millions of dollars, in sharp contrast with what King would have done, not a "five cent piece" for relief. Your correspondent waxes indignant because Bennett is not putting men to work cutting hay for the families in the dry areas. Again he is off the track. He should address his criticisms to the liberal government in Saskatchewan and the U. F. A. government at Edmonton.

His slam at Bennett for being over in Europe is best answered by the new French treaty which the Prime Minister signed a few days ago and under which Canadian wheat will enter France at about half the duty which stood against it when the Conservative party came into power and which had been hoisted during King's regime. It is not so, record that King protested against the loss of this market nor that if the United States for our cattle while he was in office. Let "J. D. W." compare the report of both Bennett and King and I am very much mistaken if he does not come to the conclusion that the former is a done more for the farmers of Canada than any man that has yet occupied the office of Prime Minister of Canada.

WILL PROPOSE AMENDMENTS TO THE B. N. A. ACT

Ottawa.—The British North America Act, that aged document which at once binds together the provinces of Canada in one vast national unit, yet stands as a bulwark of protection of peculiar provincial rights will be the bone of contention at a momentous conference in Ottawa, probably in November.

While the date of the conference is no nearer fixed than when Prime Minister R. B. Bennett sent out the call to the provincial premiers the first of this month, most of the provinces have signified their willingness to attend. Their comments or suggestions on the proposed amendments to the constitution have yet to be made but will probably be ready by the end of the month.

It is proposed to have the provinces yield to federal government control the exclusive jurisdiction with respect to such social matters as unemployment insurance, hours of labor and minimum wages, certain forms of taxation, company laws and possibly trade regulations involving private property.

The British North America Act which brought the first three provinces into one Canadian confederation in 1867, made no provision for possible amendment. There have been amendments and the general practice has been to secure them by joint resolution of the senate and house of commons addressed to the imperial parliament in London. On occasions they have been secured on the sole representations of the prime minister but that was many years ago.

It will be the objective of the forthcoming conference to secure approval of certain proposed amendments and also to secure, by concerted action of the provinces and the Dominion, approval by the British parliament of a purely Canadian form of amendment to the constitution.

If the latter objective is achieved it will then be possible for the Canadian people, as represented by their members in parliament, to make whatever amendments circumstances dictate without further reference to London.

Aftermath Of Yacht Race

Will Not Enter Another Challenge, Says Sopwith

Newport, R.I.—Endeavour, the trim sloop which completed an unsuccessful but impressive race against the Rainbow for the America's cup, is not for sale.

Her owner, T. O. M. Sopwith, said emphatically, "I am not selling Endeavour" when he was advised of the fact that a movement was afoot in Nova Scotia for a group of Canadian yachting enthusiasts to purchase the blue-bolt yacht and challenge the United States for the America's cup. Sopwith said there was no reason why he should sell the craft.

"She is going back to England inside of a fortnight," he added. "I'm going to race her next summer in England."

White Sopwith has flatly said he will never challenge again, there were many here who held to the opinion a challenge would be forthcoming nevertheless.

The 1934 races, most turbulent in the history of the cup, centered around the chief topic of conversation in yachting circles and there was an amazing agreement of opinion. The most salient points on which there were more or less accord was that the Endeavour was a faster boat than the Rainbow and that superior seamanship was the factor that enabled the United States boat to overtake and vanquish the Endeavour.

Those who argued Britain would again challenge for the cup held that Britons must have been encouraged by the fine showing of the Sopwith yacht.

Members of the Rainbow camp did not hesitate to admit they were extremely lucky in edging out the big blue invader.

Kidnapping Menace

Hon. Arthur Roebuck Addresses Conference in New York

New York.—Hon. Arthur Roebuck, attorney-general for Ontario, laid before law enforcement and crime-prevention authorities of the United States, a plan designed to eradicate the growing menace of kidnapping for ransom.

The law's reply to challenges from kidnapers, he declared, should be "certainty of apprehension, and make the business unprofitable." This would be accomplished by making it illegal to pay a ransom and by wielding all police authorities into a mobile unit which could be stretched out in any direction at sudden notice.

Mr. Roebuck, speaking at the New York Herald-Tribune conference on current problems of 1934, emphasized his opposition to what he called centralization of police authority "and the reorganization of our civil officials on the basis of a standing army." But what he thought was required was "generalship; and generalship necessitates unified control."

There was no need for centralized management of all police forces, he said, but only centralized command all resources in the hands of a unified criminal investigation department."

He told of his plans to submit at the first session of the Ontario legislature measures designed to widen authority of this branch of the Ontario Provincial Police.

He also told of his preparations to submit to the legislature a proposal which would "entrust the executive with power to supervise the bank accounts and other resources of relatives, friends and other persons while they are subject to the pressure of such illegal demands, and by so doing thus forcibly prevent payment of ransom."

Mr. Roebuck agreed such measures might prove hardship to relatives of a kidnapped victim but he expressed the conviction that if plotters knew in advance a ransom could not be paid and such payment would be prevented by law authorities, "the relative would not have been kidnapped. It is not new that the state should act individually to bear hardship for the common good."

Wants To Keep Control

British Columbia Reluctant To Surrender New Wage Law

Victoria.—With what he considers higher wage standards and labor conditions in effect in British Columbia than in other parts of Canada, the province would be reluctant to surrender control over its minimum wage and labor regulations to the Dominion authority, Hon. G. S. Pearson, minister of labor, stated.

According to the estimate of Premier T. D. Pattullo, payroll in British Columbia have been increased $500,000 monthly by minimum wage scales put into effect in the province during the present year.

Mr. Pearson was speaking of the report that the Dominion might propose taking over control of wage scales, at the coming Dominion-provincial conference. The minister is in agreement with the idea of having wage legislation adopted throughout Canada but is opposed to the Dominion setting scales for this province. British Columbia is willing to discuss the matter of wages for the whole of Canada lower than those it feels are right, stated the minister.

Trapper Found Dead

Distress Flag On Island Failed To Attract Attention

He had been dead more than a month from natural causes.

REQUEST OF RUSSIA CAUSES STIR IN LEAGUE

Geneva.—Russia's surprise move to get the council of the League of Nations to strike a balance on disarmament apparently had stirred up a hornet's nest.

Because of the "dynamite" contained in Foreign Commissioner Maxim Litvinoff's report that the council should request on whether the disarmament conference can be successfully resumed, efforts were made to induce him to withdraw it.

Statements in some quarters were known to be apprehensive lest a report from Arthur Henderson, president of the disarmament conference might blame failure of the conference on Germany's withdrawal.

This, it was explained, inevitably would raise the question of the alleged re-arming of Germany in violation of the treaty of Versailles—a question some countries are desirous of avoiding.

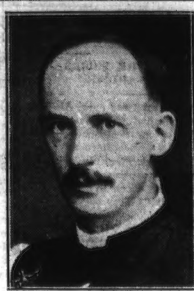

Litvinoff's proposal would throw the whole question of disarmament back into the lap of the league council, which then would be responsible for choosing the path leading to disarmament. The proposal was contained in a letter to Richard Sander, president of the league assembly.

Believe Poland Has Swept Honors In Competition

Warsaw.—Poland, playing host to the 22nd annual Gordon Bennett balloon race, apparently had swept honors in that competition.

Official results will be delayed several days, it was announced, pending the arrival of the balloonists' landing books.

It was believed the Polish "Baranawa" (Warsaw), crewed by Z. Bursynski and J. Zakrzewski, which landed near Riazan, Russia, was the winner, having covered approximately 750 miles.

The "Kosciuszko", piloted by Captain Franciszek Hysak, which landed near Voronezh, Russia, was believed to have taken second place.

The third Polish balloon, the "Polonia", burst and fell into a lake some 400 miles south of Helsinki, Finland. Its chances for third place were believed good.

All 16 that took flight have been reported safe.

LAUNCHING OF THE GIANT LINER "QUEEN MARY"

Clydebank, Glasgow, Scotland.—The queen christened the giant new Cunard-White Star liner 534 the "Queen Mary" as the great ship started down the ways to the water.

The Queen Mary, which it is believed will be the new queen of the seas, will down successfully in a perfect launching.

The choice of the name of a living queen for a christening was most unusual. Right up until the moment of the actual christening, no one had announced what the great ship's name was to be and the suggestion "Britannia" ruled a favorite.

The launching followed a short speech by King George. The Prince of Wales was present besides a multitude of other notables.

After the welcoming speeches to the king and queen His Majesty replied:

"I thank you for the loyal address of welcome to us. As a sailor, I have deep pleasure in coming here to watch the launching by the queen of this great and beautiful ship."

The sea with her tempests will not readily be bridled. She is stronger than men, yet in recent times man has done much to make the struggle with her more equal.

It is still less than 100 years since Samuel Cunard founded a series of small wooden paddle-steamers for carrying mails across the Atlantic to America. Those first Cunard liners were of 1,150 tons. A few people now alive must have in their childhoods have heard those ships spoken of with wonder as evidence of man's mastery over nature.

"Today we come to the happy task of sending on her way the stately ship now in being. I thank all those here and elsewhere whose efforts, however inconspicuous or humble, have helped to build her."

His Majesty remarked that for three years the uncompleted hull had lain on the stocks, until a government grant enabled resumption of the work.

"We know full well what misery a silent dockyard may spread among a seaport, and with what courage that misery may be endured," the king said. "During those years when work upon her was suspended, we grieved for what that suspension meant to thousands of our people."

"We rejoice that with the help of my government it has been possible to lift that cloud, and to complete this ship."

"Now," with hope of better trade on both sides of the Atlantic, let us look forward to her playing a great part in the revival of international commerce."

"It has been the nation's will that she should be completed, and to-day we can send her forth, no longer a number of iron books, but a ship with a name in the world, alive with beauty, energy and strength."

"Samuel Cunard built his ships to carry mail between two English-speaking countries. This one is built to carry the product of two lands, in great numbers, to and fro, so they may learn to understand each other."

"Both are faced with similar problems, and they prosper and suffer together. May she, in her career, bear many thousands of our race to visit each other as students and return as friends."

"We sent her to her element with the goodwill of all nations, as a mark of our hope in the future. She has been built in fellowship among ourselves. May her life among the great waters spread friendships among the nations."

BENNETT MAKES STRONG PLEA FOR WORLD PEACE

Paris.—Prime Minister R. B. Bennett, speaking at a banquet in his honor at the Inter-Allied Club here, made an impassioned plea for international peace and friendliness.

"When Canadians traversed the seas to maintain peace," he told the 150 diplomats and prominent Frenchmen gathered at the banquet, "they believed it would come again."

"Canadians know how earnestly France has striven for peace," he said. "In these days of rapid communications, the repercussions of what takes place in France to-day are felt in Canada tomorrow."

Pierre-Elie Flamin, minister of public works in the Doumergue cabinet, proposed the Canadian premier's health and acknowledged Canada's hospitality at her recent Jacques Cartier quartercentenary celebration. Flamin braded the French delegation to the celebration.

Introduced by Hon. Philippe Roy, Canadian minister in Paris, the premier took occasion to make smiling reference to politics at home.

He said he hoped the guests would not consider him too great a man "as the by-election at home indicate I am not."

"Naturally when a government has not yielded to inflation it does not receive the plaudits of the people," the premier said. "But there are signs of improvement now."

"Owing to the gold mines and productivity of the new crops, the Canadian dollar is worth more than the American one."

British Chamber Of Commerce Suggests Calling Imperial Meeting

London.—The British Chamber of Commerce unanimously passed a resolution urging the government to take opportunity of the king's silver jubilee celebrations next year, when leaders from the Dominions will be in London, to call another Imperial conference.

This conference could review the trade position in the light of the Imperial agreements signed at the Imperial economic conference in Ottawa in 1932, it was pointed out.

Figures showed that Britain's exports to the empire had topped her exports to foreign countries this year for the first time in history. Only a few days ago Ottawa reported an increase of Canadian trade with the rest of the empire more than accounted for her total increase over last year.

In the first eight months of the year British exports to empire countries increased by more than $60,000,000 over last year, or 14.2 per cent. Exports to foreign countries increased by $13,750,000, or 2.9 per cent.

The net effect was to bring the empire exports $3,315,000 higher than exports to foreign countries.

Boy Scout Campaign

Plea Is Made By Lord Beasborough For Increased Membership

Ottawa.—An earnest appeal for a campaign having for its object an increase in the number of Canadian Boy Scouts from 65,000 to 100,000 was made by Lord Beasborough, governor-general, here. Addressing the commissioners and provincial presidents of the Boy Scouts' Association at their banquet, Lord Beasborough, recalling that next year Canada would be visited by Lord Baden-Powell, founder of the movement, urged his hearers to welcome him with a membership vastly increased over its present numbers.

Hon. H. H. Stevens paid tribute to the splendid character of the men associated with scouting.

S. J. Latte, of Saskatchewan was presented by His Excellency with the badge of the Silver Wolf during the evening.

Col. J. H. Woods, provincial president, Calgary, assured the governor-general his visit for its object an increase in the Boy Scout movement would be accomplished.

Will Represent Canada

Ottawa.—Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, government leader in the senate and member of the cabinet without portfolio, will in the near future represent Canada at Melbourne, Australia, next month, as representative of the Empire Parliamentary Association and of the Dominion government. He will sail from Vancouver on October 29.

SAYS BABIES SOLD

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Sept. 27.—Charges that physicians were selling babies, in order to obtain compensation for themselves and for hospitals in maternity cases were made to the governor's council Wednesday by Elizabeth Owens of the state department of social welfare. She said the babies were adopted in the legal method provided by law and the money was paid secretly to the doctor or hospital in exchange for release of the children signed by the mothers.

Laugh and Grow Fat

A HUMOROUS STRAIN WITH WHICH OUR NEIGHBORS HAVE TICKLED THEIR READERS

DIDN'T TAKE THE WORDS OUT OF HIS MOUTH

The dinner party was over. All had eaten heartily and expensively. In one corner a lone Scotchman strove to make himself inconspicuous when the check arrived. Suddenly, to every one's complete surprise, he spoke up: "Just leave the check to me. I'll take care of it." They obeyed.

Item in next morning's newspaper: SCOTCHMAN MURDERS VENTRILOQUIST

GOT HIM TOLD

The Irishman had been having a great argument and meant to finish off his opponent once and for all.

"The sooner I never see your face again," he roared, "the better it will be for both of us when we meet."

Three minutes after receiving a wedding letter a dandy appeared at the ticket window of the Erie railroad station. The following conversation ensued:

"Cap'n, sah, when do le fastest train lead dis town?"

"Dat's all right, boss; I'm in a hurry; jus' you sell me a ticket and tell me what track she lef on."

TROUBLES JUST STARTING

The story is told of a Kentuckian, who had lived to the ripe old age experienced by a centenarian. About a week after his 100th birthday he decided to do a little belated celebrating and in a choice collection of friends. At some time during the evening's festivities a lamp was overturned and the old-dinner's modest dwelling was soon a mass of flames. As he and his cronies stood sorrowfully surveying the blaze a fellow townsman came hurrying up with the bad news that the towns only bank, in which were deposited the centenarian's life savings, had failed.

The product of 100 winters drew a deep breath and uttered, "Well, who in the H—ever said the first 100 years were the hardest."

They were rather late in starting for the station, and his wife said: "You run ahead, dear, and hold the train."

"Yeah," he answered sarcastically. "And what particular he'd would you like me to use—the head, lock, scissors, or half nelson?"

"Since Howard lost all his money half his friends don't know him any more."

"What about the other half?" "They haven't found out that he lost it."

Crop Reports And Average Yields

Press dispatches from over the country are somewhat conflicting to the average mind. One day we read of the drought area and think it is so immense that possibly there would be little wheat left for export. For instance not long ago a report was current that one hundred acres of sugar beet land was ploughed under in Ontario because they failed to germinate due to lack of moisture. From other points in the same province come similar reports.

From Southern Manitoba, Sask.,atchewan and Alberta, hundreds of farmers have left their land this year because of insufficient feed to carry their milking stock through the winter. Wheat raising in these areas are beyond consideration.

Yet, reports by students of the revenue to farmers of Canada are $176,000,000. This is a boost of $51,000,000 over last year.

Comparative average prices for the whole of September, 1933, with September, 1934, to date, show wheat was 15 cents a bushel higher than 5 years ago; oats, 11 cents up; flax, 14 cents advanced; rye, 15 cents better, and barley, almost double its price, was 33 cents a bushel higher.

The Sanford Evans' Statistical Service made the first estimate of the value of the 1934 prairie wheat crop. Basing its figures on a crop of $265,000,000 bushels and taking the average price paid at country elevator during the first six weeks of the crop year, it set the wheat at $176,935,000, an increase of $51,000,000 over the 1933 value.

Greater Wheat Crop
Canada's 1933 wheat production selling at much lower prices, was 269,729,000 bushels, and the 1934 crop was estimated at 277,304,000 bushels, of which 255,000,000 was estimated for the three prairie provinces. Added to the better wheat prices was the increased revenue for coarse grains.

Bad harvesting conditions were certain to affect the grade of grain to some extent, but until it is cleaned and graded, we full estimate will not be known. Rain and snow both came to hamper harvesting. But even at that lower grades were bringing higher prices than a year ago.

The 1933 oat crop was 30,475,000 bushels and the 1934 crop was estimated at 34,746,000, an increase of 37,271,000 bushels. Flax production for 1934 was estimated at 1,096,000 a gain of 464,000 bushels over the 1932 production last year. Rye production in 1933 was a 4,327,000 bushels and the 1934 crop was estimated at 6,523,000 bushels. Barley, where the greatest single increase in yield was anticipated, was estimated for this year at 68,800,000 bushels. An increase of 5,441,000 over the 63,359,000 produced in 1933.

Difficult Estimating
Estimating the value of the crops in dollars to the farmers was a big problem, at least for the time being. Farm consumption—seedling and poultry and livestock feeding—was virtually an unknown quantity. And because of less than average crops, farmers were little worried by the wheat export quota, which saw Canada's 1934-35 exports at 268,000,000 bushels.

A HUNDRED YEARS AGO

(Excerpts from "The Observer", London, England, of 1834)

The Chimney-Sweepers' Act. The master chimney-sweepers in the Metropolis are much annoyed by the new Act forbidding them to cry their vocation in the streets. On Thursday, Caleb Ludford, of Duck Lane, Westminster, came before Mr. White at Queen Square Office, to ask his advice how he should proceed with his business.

Caleb made a low bow and said: "Please, your worship, I feel myself quite done up by this new law. I am talking about, and I want a bit of advice."

Mr. White asked him what Act he meant.

Caleb: Your worship, I mean the new Act our Parliament men have been making about us chimney sweeps. They tell me it is called the Chimney Sweepers' Act, but I'm blessed if it's any Act of mine, for I know nothing about it.

Caleb was informed that there was such an Act, which had just come into operation, and he exclaimed: "Vell, I'm blessed if it's not a pretty good. Vy, they tell me if any of my chaps call 'sweep' in the streets, he must tip 40 bob."

Mr. White told him that it was a penalty of 40s.

Caleb: Vell, I'm up to 'em. I tells my chaps never to call 'sweep' now, but about "soul-he," they can't make them tip the blintz then.

Mr. White told him he would still be liable to the penalty.

Caleb: Vell, then, vat are we to do? There's a gemman in the same parishment as myself, vot is set up as the Hact, and says as how his chaps shall call "sweep" as long as they likes, and so they does now, and spoils all my regular customers. I've got nine young kids to keep, and we shall all be ruined.

Mr. White told him his opponent was liable to the penalty.

Caleb: Then I says this, that the whole country will be ruined by his here Hact of Parliament. I'm loved if I don't sell off all my m/raps and bolt out of the country. He then made a low bow and walked out of the office.

TRAINS SHRINK

The mind of Einstein conceived many theories which are completely incomprehensible to the normal and even the ordinary scientific mind. One of his conceptions is that a train speeding at 60 miles per hour is shorter than a train standing still. He also claims that when an apple falls from a tree it is not so much the apple being "pulled" by gravity to the earth, as it is the earth rising to "hit" the apple.

In recording the death, early on a Wednesday morning, of Viscount Churchill, Chairman of the Great Western Railway Company, the Railway Gazette points out a strange coincidence. On Tuesday evening he engine of the 610 train from "Addington to Birmingham" failed to be replaced. The name of the engine was Viscount Churchill.

In Lighter Vein

History Lecture—"Can any one tell me what makes the Tower of 'lean'?"

Stout Lady—"I don't know or I'd take some myself."

TAKING THE COUNT

The minister says he doesn't mind members of the congregation pulling up their watches on him, but it gets his goat to have them put the darn things up to their ears to see if they are going.

SCARCE

General—"Confound you, sir, why don't you be careful?"

Army Clerk—"What do you mean, sir?"

General—"Why, instead of addressing this letter to the intelligence officer, you have addressed it to the intelligent officer. You should know there is no such person in the army."

TRAIL BLAZER

It was customary for the congregation to repeat the 23rd Psalm in unison, invariably Mrs. Spielman would keep about a dozen words ahead of the rest. "Who," asked a visitor of an old church member on Sunday, "was the lady who was already by the still waters while the rest of us were lying down in green pastures?"

"My father is mayor," bragged the small boy, "and when he drives his car he doesn't have to pay any attention to traffic rules."

"That's nothing," snorted his friend "my father is a truck driver."

Blinks: "It's a waste of time to roast him for being so raw."

Jinks: "Yes, you can't expect any thing else from a half-baked nut when he's stewed."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

SAFE AGAIN

The examiner was questioning a candidate for the position of engine driver.

"You are driving an engine down a steep incline at an excessive speed. What do you do?"

"Make a brake application," said the candidate.

"Don't act," shot back the examiner.

"Put brake handles into emergency position."

"Does not reduce speed sufficiently," went on the examiner.

"Reverse the engine and turn on steam," said the candidate.

"The wheels refuse to grip the metals."

"Four sand on the metals."

"Sand is damp and won't pass through the pipes." The examiner put the question with an air of triumph. "Now what do you do?"

"Let her rip. We've reached the level now."

WOMAN LEADS

Amusing incidents are sometimes the outcome of women's nerve and foresight. Recently in connection with the Hanover Furniture Strike one woman marched her husband through the picket line which the strikers had formed and into the factory and cared any of the strikers to try and stop him. From this one could gather an idea for the cartoonist of the characters "Maggie and Jiggs."

A smile was created Monday when the following was related.

"A woman took her son to the London police commissioner and applied for him to join the force."

Said the commissioner: "Young man, are you nervous at night?"

"Oh?" responded his mother: "We have decided to send his grand-mother with him the first few nights until he is used to the darkness."

E. H. L. Thomas reports a good sale on Saturday last.

The warm days certainly are appreciated and threshing is in full swing again.

Charles Wilbraham, secretary-treasurer of Battle River Municipal District, was a visitor in town on Monday.

Lars Osberg, blockman for the I. H. C., was in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James McClements and daughter, also Mrs. J. Russell, of Loughheed, were visitors at the J. W. Daugherty home on Sunday.

L. Lobeinger, assistant manager of Edmonton branch of the I. H. C., was a visitor in town last week.

Seventeen geese brought down one day and twenty-two the next by the gun of Dr. Jones, of Hughenden, was reported last weekend. Evidently a good shot as well as a good doctor.

The twin sons, 5 years of age, of Mr. and Mrs. C. LaFarge, of Hughenden, were operated on for tonsils and adenoid trouble on Saturday in the hospital. "Jackie", 5 years, left for home on Sunday night. Dr. Jones performed the operation.

Mr. W. C. Bowen, who has been in the hospital with a fractured hip, returned home on Monday.

Irm Hole has been in hospital since last Wednesday because of a burnt right hand caused when lighting a gas stove. He expects to leave the hospital about Wednesday.

On attaining her 90th birthday on Saturday last, Mrs. Baynton was visited by a number of elderly ladies at the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. E. Wiley, who celebrated the event with an afternoon tea.

UNITED CHURCH ACTIVITIES
On Sunday, October 7th, we are to be favoured with a visit from Dr. Hugh Dobson, associate secretary of Evangelism and Social Credit Section for the United Church of Canada and Field Secretary for the western provinces.

Dr. Dobson is recognized as one of the outstanding speakers of our church and his messages will be on National Thanksgiving and Christianity and Nationalism.

The hours of worship are 11:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Hear Dr. Dobson on Sunday morning and you will want to hear him in the evening. He will also speak at Grangedale at 3:00 o'clock.

Following the Evening Service there will be a re-organization meeting for our Young People's Society. The youth of Canada hold a unique position. Let us make the most of it by preparing to play our part efficiently as coming citizens of this country. We invite our young people to hear Dr. Dobson and to join in this Rally.

SURPRISE PARTY

The many friends of Jim Rattray and Frank Baker gathered at the Rattray home on Tuesday evening last to give the boys a hearty send-off to their respective destinations. Jim, of Guelph, Ontario, to take up veterinary science and Frank to Calgary to study electrical engineering. While dancing was in full swing with the younger set the older folks played cards. At twelve o'clock a sumptuous lunch was served after which Mr. O. Murray, on behalf of those present, presented Jim and Frank with pen and pencil sets. With a few well chosen words the boys showed their appreciation. Emerson Cooper tap danced and the Hausfeldt sisters sang "Mellow Moon." Both numbers were enjoyed by all.

Dancing continued until an early hour, and after singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and "Auld Lang Syne," the party broke up.

The N. I. Club met at the home of Mrs. L. Stottor Monday night.

"Necessity is the mother of invention." So say McLeod and Son and have applied their ideas to easing the pain and suffering of the sick when in transit from home to the hospital. Messrs. McLeod have constructed an "Ambulance Cot" with frame of inch pipe and a "Slumber King" spring on which the patient may rest when being removed. It has been so constructed that by slightly changing the front seats, the new cot will fit comfortably in their auto while making an extensive trip, if necessary.

William Townsend entertained the nurses of the local hospital staff at dinner Saturday, in appreciation of the kindly treatment he had received following an operation for appendicitis recently. Mr. Townsend left on Sunday for his new position on the Bank of Montreal Staff at Camrose.

Mr. Hugh Little was confined to his bed on Saturday and Sunday.

The six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Currier, of Coar, is improving as well as he can be expected after a serious operation for appendicitis.
